Journals in Mathematics

The Department of Mathematics wishes to intimate you that the list of journals in Mathematics is endless, and the word reputable is vague.

However, the Department recognizes the following:

(i)   Journals which appear in the American Mathematical Society and the Zentrablat data bases.

(ii)   Journals published by Departments of Mathematics, Faculties of Mathematics/Science and Mathematical Institutes.

(iii)   Journals published by Mathematical Societies and Mathematical Academies.

Journals listed below are some of those which fall in these categories (i), (ii), (iii).

(i)   Acta Universitatis Palackianae Olomucensis Facultas Rerum   Naturalium, Mathematica

(ii)   Annals of Differential Equations

(iii)   Journal of Nigerian Mathematical Society

(iv)   Analele Stiintifice ale Universitatii"AI.I. Cuza" din lasi

(v)   Electronic Journal of Differential Equations

(vi)   Non-linear Analysis

(vii)   Kragujevac Journal of Mathematics

(viii)   Differential Equations and Control Processes

(ix)   Applied Mathematics and Computation

(x)   Journal of Inequalities in Pure and Applied Mathematics

(xi)   Differential Equations and Applications

(xii)   Computational and Applied Mathematics

(xiii)   Mathematica Bohemica

(xiv)   Archivum Mathematicum

(xv)   Review Bulletin of Calcutta Mathematical Society

(xvi)   Facta Universitatis- Series Mathematics and Informatics

(xvii)   Southern African Journal of Pure and Applied Mathematics

(xviii)   Proceedings Southern African Mathematical Sciences Association

(xix)   Journal of Applied Mathematics and Optimization

(xx)   Journal of Nigerian Mathematical Society (JNMS)

(xxi)   Journal of Nigerian Association of Mathematical Physics (JNAMP)
