

COURSE CODE:	HSM 411
COURSE TITLE:	Advanced Construction and Tailoring Techniques
NUMBER OF UNITS:	3 Units
COURSE DURATION:	3 Hours per week

COURSE DETAILS:

Course Coordinator:	Dr. Adetoun A. Amubode
Email:	amuboto@yahoo.com
Office Location:	Department of Home Science & Management
Other Lecturers:

COURSE CONTENT:

The body contour, art of fitting, fitting techniques. Importance of grain line in fitting. Figure problems. Method of alteration on sewn garments. Tailoring techniques on special fabrics. Lining a garment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

READING LIST:

LECTURE NOTES

Week 1

- Styles, figures and fitting.
- Normal figure.
- Enlarged and heavy hip.
- Heavy bust
- Short and plumb.
- Tall and thin.

- Small bust.
- Short waisted
- Long waisted

Week 2

- Techniques of repair and renovation of sewn garments.
- Dyeing
- Mending/ darning
- Patching
- Reconstruction
- Remodelling

Week 3

- Methods of lining a garment.
- Making up the lining separately and attaching it from the waist.
- Making up the lining with the skirt.
- Garment alteration

Week 4-8

- Practical exercise in sewing of fitted garments for various figures and age.
- Drafting of the required patterns depending on the style- bodice, skirt, pant, sleeve, collar, frills, cape e.t.c.
- Pattern layout and cutting.
- Overlocking of cut out patterns.
- Construction of front and back bodice
- Construction of sleeves, collars, capes, etc depending on the style.
- Construction of facing.
- Assembling of the garments parts.
- Ironing

Week 9-11

- Practical exercise in repair and renovation of sewn garments.
- Practical exercise in patch work

Week 12

- Modelling and exhibition of articles and garments produced.