

VC charges FUNAAB alumni on varsity development

January 15, 2013 by Segun Olatunji

Vice-Chancellor, Federal University of Agriculture, Abeokuta, Prof. Olusola Oyewole
/ credits: oyewole-unaab.net

The Vice-Chancellor of the Federal University of Agriculture, Abeokuta, Ogun State, Prof. Olusola Oyewole, has charged the alumni of the institution to come up with idea and innovations that could advance its development.

Oyewole stressed that FUNAAB would also be looking up to its alumni to serve as the university's ideas bank.

The FUNAAB vice chancellor stated these while speaking at the 16th Annual Convention and 15th Annual Lecture Series of the university's Alumni Association on Saturday in Abeokuta. The theme of the convention and lecture was "Strategising the Alumni for Sustainable University Development."

Oyewole who spoke on the occasion as the chief host charged the members of the association to come up with new ideas that the university could reap some benefits from.